

STATUS & TRENDS OF ECOSYSTEM HEALTH INDICATORS
8th BIENNIAL CONFERENCE

SAVE THE DATE

19 NOVEMBER 2019

FREE UNIVERSITY OF WINDSOR
VANIER HALL

YOU'RE INVITED

Collaborate with agency managers, researchers, students, concerned citizens and more, as we analyze the health of our unique trans-national ecosystem

INTERNATIONAL ECOSYSTEM HEALTH

- Contaminated Sediment Remediation in the River Raisin Area of Concern
- Combined Sewer Overflow Controls in Southeast Michigan
- Coastal Wetland Loss
- Contaminants in Aquatic & Terrestrial Wildlife
- Detroit River International Wildlife Refuge
- Dissolved Oxygen Levels in the Rouge River
- Lake Sturgeon Population
- Lake Whitefish Spawning
- Land Use Changes
- Lead Poisoning in Detroit, Michigan
- Management of Common Reed at Erie Marsh Preserve
- Plankton Communities in Western Lake Erie
- Phosphorus Discharges from Great Lakes Water Authority's Water Resource Recovery Facility
- Pollutant Emissions
- Reproductive Success of Threatened and Endangered Species
- Soft Shoreline Engineering Along the Detroit River
- Urban Sprawl
- & many others

FOR SPONSORSHIP, POSTER PRESENTATIONS OR QUESTIONS CONTACT

Steven Francoeur
Eastern Michigan University
steve.francoeur@emich.edu

John Hartig
University of Windsor
Great Lakes Institute for Environmental Research
jhhartig@uwindsor.ca

University of Windsor

EASTERN
MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

